

DANNY BRADLEY

GLOBAL CAMPAIGNS
OFFICER

Danny Bradley supports MADRE's advocacy initiatives that advance the rights of women, girls, and LGBTQIA+ persons of all genders at the national and international level. His work centers women-led and queer-led grassroots movements and focuses on bridging the gap between community-based civil society and key global spaces, such as the International Criminal Court and United Nations. Danny's work includes conducting trainings and creating resources and manuals to support grassroots and civil society groups meaningfully engage with global initiatives for gender justice.

- ▶ Danny co-authored, with Lisa Davis, the article Victory for Women and LGBTIQ Rights under International Criminal Law: Gender in the Draft Crimes against Humanity Treaty, featured in Oxford University Press' award-winning book, "Gender and International Criminal Law."
- ▶ Danny co-authored, for Outright International, the report Creating Safe Schools & Support for LGBT Students: A Policy Analysis of Sustainable Development Goal 4.
