

MUADI MUKENGE

SENIOR DIRECTOR
OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

Muadi oversees resource mobilization and communications for MADRE. She brings over two decades of experiences leading women's rights and global health initiatives. Originally from the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Muadi has partnered extensively with women's rights and social justice organizations in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. She has participated in the African Feminist Forum and other women's funds networks, and donor collaboratives focused on Francophone Africa, Congo, and international human rights. Previously, Muadi led fundraising at Ipas for four years, and led the Africa program at Global Fund for Women for 12 years.

- ▶ Muadi led The Women's Platform for the Peace, Security and Cooperation Framework in the Great Lakes Region of Africa, at the Global Fund for Women, in collaboration with the United Nations from 2014-2016.
- ▶ She is active on nonprofit boards, including Coins of Hope, Priority Africa Network, and Eastern Congo Initiative.
- ▶ Muadi has authored and contributed to several publications on women's rights and movement-building in Africa.

Follow @MADRESpeaks

Questions?
media@MADRE.org

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- ▶ International development and grantmaking
- ▶ Women's human rights and reproductive rights
- ▶ Fundraising and donor engagement
- ▶ Global health programming
- ▶ Development communications
- ▶ African politics and human rights in the Congo